BOOKMAKER PLUNKETT OF BROOKLYN ASKS THAT HE BE JOINED AS A PLAINTIFF.

Lieutenant-Governor Sanders Makes Argument for New Orleans Jockey Club-Says Brown Desires to Ruin the Track.

New Orleans, La., January 8.—The arguments in the case of the application of H. D. Brown for a receiver for the New Orleans Jockey Club and City Park Jockey Club were heard today by Judge Parlange in the United States Circuit Court. The case was opened a few minutes after 11 o'clock with the of the original petition and two supple-petitions which were filed in the case by These were read by Eugene D. Saunders, of the attorneys for the petitioner. T. A. kett, a well known member of the "Mets," residing in Brooklyn, N. Y., and holder of twenty related of New Orleans Jockey Club stock intervened and asked that he be joined as a plaintiff.

After the reading and filing of the petitions, Lieutenant Company Land V.

tenant-Governor Jared Y. Sanders, attorney for the defendant stockholders in the New Orleans Jockey Club made his argument. He said that the applica of Brown was prompted by a desire to ruin track in order that the Western Jockey Club might gain control of the property and that Brown is working with the leaders in that organization in the action which he is now taking. Another motive ascribed for Brown's action is a desire to "get even" the alleged "turn-down" when he was ted as starter at the track this season.

In the petition Brown alleges that the action of directors in leasing the property to the City k club was illegal, inasmuch as no quorum was present. He also alleges that the property is not being properly cared for, as it is not paying the dividends which it should pay if managed in the Lieutenant-Governor Sanders in his argument stated that Brown had made practically the same proposi-tion to the directors of the New Orleans Jockey Club Mr. Barnes and that his offer had been while that made by Barnes had been ac-The allegation of illegality in the leasing of the property was also denied. The attorney fur-ther stated that the action of Barnes and the nine men who joined him was for the purpose of pro-tecting the property for themselves and the other stockholders. He stated that none of the officers of either club was paid any salary and that Barnes held the propositon to all the stockholders from November 23 to the day on which the meeting opened, November 30.

The arguments will be concluded tomorrow

PHIL FINCH WINS THE JACKSON HANDICAP. Ed Early Runs Away-Jockey Shaw to Ride for Shields-Heavy Ring Operations.

New Orleans, La., January 8 .- The feature race Crescent Park today was the Jackson Handicay at one and one-half miles. It brought out the best long distance racers here. The prize went to Phil Although burdened with the heavy impost of ands, he put up a sparkling performance. He had to cauter to defeat his opponents and stamped himself as the best horse in training an the handicap division now stabled at the old track Recently Captain Williams refused an offer o for this horse. The offer was made by Shields. It is Captain Williams' intention to race him and Rain's Horn in the east next summer. With that end in view he is said to have sent a big check to the forfeit clerk, settling his accumu-lated forfeit obligations.

"Humming Bird" Tyler again monopolizing attention. He is laying top prices and accepting wagers that most of the other layers refuse to handle. His winnings for the afternoon are said to have been close to $10,000. The attendance was PREPARING TO ANNOUNCE STAKES.

Memphis, Tenn., January 8.—The New Memphi Jockey Club is preparing to announce renewals of all its stakes, including the Montgomery Handicap and the Derby and Oaks for 1907, entries for these races in 1906 having closed last spring. From state made by Jockey Club officials, however, it is take place here in the future. It is the consens of opinion, even of the people who promoted the anti-racing bill, that the decisions of Judges Hard and Richardson that the act is unconstitutional will affirmed by the Supreme Court.

Will Applegate has arrived at San Francisco trip around the world. He will book at Oakland or the remainder of the season.

CITY PARK FEATURE GOES TO ALMA DUFOUR. DR. LEGGO SCORES A FORTUNATE VICTORY. Big Crowd and Heavy Betting—Goldmate Is Badly Injured-Jockey Roerner Is Fined.

January 8.-Jackson brought great returns in a racing way at City Park . The anniversary of the battle of New Orwas celebrated by the holiday folks in a battle with the layers. The crowd was far better than was expected and the volume of business in the ring was probably better than on any other day of the meet. Many of the books were simply flooded with commissions and in several races the money of the public went begging.

The Old Hickory Handicap was a great race Alma Dufour, an added starter, picked up 122 pounds and won, but she had to be the good mare that she is to do it. Despite the weight, the books did not hold her cheap. She was made the choice at even money and that price ruled throughout, while Attila was backed at 5 to 2 and Harry Stephens and Corus-cate came in for a lot of support. It was the best betting race of the day. Steeplechase jockey T. McHugh received word from George Saportas today to report for duty at Lake cood, N. J. on February 1.

The judges fined jockey Koerner $25 for striking jockey Springer across the back with his whip dur-ing the running of the second race. Goldmate was cut down in his race Saturday and so badly injured that his chances of racing again in the immediate future are slim. One of the colt's eyes was also injured. He may lose the sight of it. Troxler, who had the mount on Orly, claimed foul against Grenade, which beat him out a length in the fifth race. The claim was not entertained by the

MONTANA FAIR AND RACING CIRCUIT.

The Montana Fair and Racing Circuit, which was organized at Helena Saturday, with R. D. Ste of Bozeman, as president, and D. A. Galbreath, Butte, as secretary-treasurer, will embrace the fol-lowing cities of Montana: Butte, Helena, Anaconda, Great Falls, Lewiston, Billings, Livingston, Misso Kalispell and Bozeman. At Butte there will be two weeks' racing. At the other points one week each. The season will open at Butte on July 30, and extend through to October 19, at Kalispell. The total value of the purses to be offered will be $125. The same racing officials are to act at all 000. meetings, and as there will be no conflict in dates great savings can be effected by stable owners through combining their shipments. The circuit in-cludes the Montana State Fair at Helena, October 1. The board of directors are authorized to employ track officials for the association, and will act so It is thought the prolonged season and large purs n and large purse will result in attracting splendid stables to the state.

Entries to four stakes for two-year-olds to l decided at the Crescent City Jockey closed yesterday. The stakes were: colts and geldings, one-half mile, $1,000 adde be run February 3; The Martha Washington, fillies, one-half mile, $1,000 added, to be run February 22 the Carnival, four and one-half furlongs, $1, added, to be run February 28, and the Rosebud, five furlongs, $1,000 added, to be run March 10.

STABLE ROOM IS AT A PREMIUM

San Francisco, Cal., January 8.—Stable room is a premium at Oakland. Shipments from Ascot Park are becoming more numerous. reasons for the exodus from the southern track. The schedule of dates for the local season embraces seven weeks more than that at Los Angeles and the against racing at Ascot Park seems to be gaining foreboding strength.

The first ladies' day of the season at Crescent Park will be January 23.

J. M. Murphy, the western bookmaker, is making an extended trip through Europe.

Last Race at Oakland Is Marred by Bad Start-Bearcatcher Has a Sore Mouth.

San Francisco, Cal., January 8.-Dr. Leggo won fortunate victory in the last race at Oakland today. The race was marred by a bad start. Sir Brillar, the second choice, with Radtke up, as well as Sandstone, were left at the post. Lucky Baldwin's colt, Rey del Mundo, which led to the final sixteenth, would probably have won, but for getting off badly Notwithstanding a moderate off-day card, the sport was excellent and witnessed by fully 6,000 specta-tors. Thirty-two layers were in line.

Radtke rode three favorites, Rosi Ni Ni, Mafalda nd Hugh McGowan-and a second choice—Sir Bril lar-to ignominious defeat, being upplaced except with Mafalda, which ran third. Radtke and Robinson were fined for rough riding.

The California Jockey Club gave its annual ban quet to the press yesterday at Oakland. It was a brilliant affair all around and the utmost good feeling prevailed.

H. T. Griffin left for Los Angeles today. His orses will remain and race at Oakland to the end of the season. Cushing & Barbee, owners of Hans Wagner and other horses now at Ascot, have wired the local association for stall room.

Garnet Ferguson attributes Bearcatcher's defeat to sore mouth. His announcement that Bearcatcher would not participate in the proposed five furlong special, caused that race to be declared off by the club. Another race has been substituted, however, for three-year-olds, weight for age and at the same

MAJOR THOMAS TALKS OF HIMYAR'S RACES. Veteran Breeder of the Great Racehorse and Sire Explains Some of His Defeats.

Major B. G. Thomas, the veteran breeder, at his home in Lexington, Ky., talked interestingly a few days ago of his once great horse Himyar, which has just fled at the advanced age of thirty years, at Avondale Stud in Summer County, Tennessee. is an odd fact that all the great horses of days gone by with which Major Thomas' name has been connected have been outlived by this Nestor of the turf, now very close on to four score years of age. Domino, King Ban, Fellowcraft, Lelex, Mannie Gray, Queen Ban and Tommie Atkins are all dead, and now Himyar has joined them in General Buford's horse heaven. As Major Thomas has survived all his contemporary turfmen and breeders of the days soon after the Civil war, so he has also outlived the great horses which have made his name famous in turf history for all time to come. Said Major Thomas: "Himyar should have been retired with an unbeaten turf record. He never lost a race but that there was a good excuse for his being beaten. Take the Kentucky Derby, for instance, when Day Star beat him out. The starter left him nearly flat-footed at the post, and at one time he was fully fifty yards behind the leading horse. With this disadvantage in the early part of the race, he closed up on Day Star in the stretch and gave him a battle royal for the money. Then there was the Elkhorn Stakes, in which Commie F. defeated him." said the

"That day the track was a sea of mud on the inside, while there was a hard walking path on the outside of the course. Bob Swim got Commie F. on the bard outside, and the boy on Hinyar held him close to the rail in the deep going. At that he had only to pull to the outside on entering the stretch and walk home, but his jockey kept him in the mud and slush, and, as a result, he was beaten. He lost the Distillers' Stakes to Mendelssohn simply because his jockey waited too long to make his run, and in the Louisville Cup, won by Volturno, his defeat was due to the same riding which enabled Commie F. to beat him in the Elkhorn Stakes. With all the bad luck which fol-lowed him during his racing career, he won all told beat Himyar when at his best, unless it was his son Domino, but then I have not seen Sysonby since he was a two-year-old and my health was too poor last eason for me to make a trip east. Domino was per haps a faster horse than Himyar, but the sire I guess could beat his sensational son over a distance of ground."

Major Thomas has many relics of Himyar in his ome in Lexington. Plates worn by the noted horse in his great races, handsome paintings of him by Scott in his racing days and silver services which the great horse captured in some of his brilliant

MAY REACH AMICABLE AGREEMENT.

Hot Springs, Ark., January 8 .- It is expected that the trouble over racing dates for Oaklawn and Es sex Park will be adjusted some time this week Dan Stuart, who is interested with John Condon in the ownership of Oaklawn is due here in a day or two for a meeting with Sheriff Williams and the owners of Essex Park. The Essex Park people want an equal division of dates—about twenty days at each track—beginning from February 17. This is the date on which Oaklawn Park has declared, under the Western Jockey Club allotment, to open for thirty-one days or more. The citizens do not want williams, who is supreme in these parts, will be asked to prevent such a thing. The sheriff, however, recently announced that he would not inter-fere in the racetrack troubles unless there should a violation of the state, county or city laws,

JOCKEYS' STANDING IN 1905.

DAVE NICOL DOES MOST CONSISTENT RIDING AND HEADS THE LIST.

Willie Knapp, Walter Miller and Herman Radtke Others Credited With Over 150 Winners Each-862 Boys Have Mounts.

The number of jockeys having mounts in the 8,011 races decided at the principal tracks of the United States and Canada and covered by the charts Racing Form during the year 1905, was 862. Of these 192 rode ten or more winners each. 244 rode from one to nine winners each and 426 failed to finish first in any race. The honors of the year, in the matter of winning mounts, go to Dave col. The Chicago boy, who began his career the saddle in the fall of 1903 and stood second to Eugene Hildebrand in the list of 1904, is at the top of the 1905 list with 221 winners, 26 per cent. of his 857 mounts. He has been consistent through the two full years of his career, for in 1904 his percentage was likewise.26, he having that year 198 win-ners out of 757 mounts. While it is the public's vogue to follow almost blindly the boys who are rid-While it is the public's ing frequent winners and it is the fashion of the daily press of the country to feature the winning perfo ances of these lads irrespective of the losers de, it is nevertheless from a basis of percentage that a jockey's true merit is to be deter mined. There are other boys in the list of winning jockeys who have a better percentage than Nicol, but none who rode through all of the twelve months stands so high, and certainly there is no boy in the list who can show 26 per cent. of winners ridden for a steady, or nearly steady, twenty-four months of saddle work.

Offo Wonderly, who came to his untimely death at Memphis on April 2 as the result of a fall, and kick from a horse which he was exercising during the morning hours at Montgomery Park, stood best for the year on a percentage basis with .31. Next comes the little boy Perrett, under contract to Hugh McCarren, Jr. This lad never had a mount until after the opening of the meeting at City Park November 30 last, yet in his first 27 days he rolled up a percentage of .30, riding 18 winners out of 54 mounts. Eddie Dominick, who abandoned the saddle at the Brooklyn autumn meeting and went traipsing off to St. Louis on some unexplained mission, had a percentage of .28 and the ability to make it better had he stuck to his knitting. Cormack, the only other boy whose percentage was as good as .26, rode only at the Hot Springs meetings in this country last year. After the death of H. C. Schulz, his contract employer, at Hot Springs in February last, Cormack signed a contract France. He did well there.

Herman Radtke, the Chicago boy who is now under contract to J. O. Keene and the most admired jockey at San Francisco, began riding at Union Park in St. Louis last spring. He was then under contract to J. F. Davis, who sold the papers to Mr. Keene for something like $5,000 when came apparent that he would either "break his neck or make good." He is fourth in the list in matter of winners ridden, but has a percentage of .25, just a point behind Nicol, the leader, and seven points better than "Big Bill' Knapp, second in the list. and five points better than Walter Miller. These two last named were the sensation of the eastern season, the latter having columns of silly stuff written about him. After the close of the Ascot Park meeting last winter it was shown in the columns of Daily Racing Form that Miller was a com-ing boy, but the New York press overlooked the fact that he had early evidenced the making of a rider and set him on a high pedestal late in the fall, Martin rode 16 per cent. of Sewell, a coming rider, has 19 per cent. C. Morris, who has ridden winners in strings of 3, 4 and 5 per day, has a percentage of .17. R. McDaniel, another Ascot Park sensation of last season, has 15 per cent. The others in the first fourteen—the riders of 100 or more winners—are Aubuchon, F. O'Neill, Treubel, E. Morrison, Swain and Hildebrand, who headed the list in 1904 with 297 winners, and lost his license last September.

The booby prize for the year goes to D. O'Connor. This boy is a graduate from "Father Bill" Daly's stable, but after his saddle work of 1905, the old man of the east will hardly go out of his way to admit the fact. O'Connor rode at seventeen meetings, had 147 mounts and piloted one winner— Veronese at 12 to 1 on the opening day of the spring meeting at Belmont Park. However, he did ride 13 seconds and 15 thirds. Following is the list of jockeys who rode 10 winners or more during the Rosi Ni Ni, away striding, dropped out after early racing with the leaders and ran a bad race. Kizil came from the rear and was going fast at the end. Main displayed a good turn of speed for a half. Cascade of Diamonds got off poorly. Scratched—59329 Fulletta, 110; 58989 Mazel, 105; 59485 Atkins, 106.

The New Louisville Jockey Club will discontinue its Nursery Stakes after its running next spring. Entries to the event for this year closed last spring.

Usury 5-1 Won

Again I demonstrated my ability to secure profit for my clients and the organization, although I expected a much larger price on Usury, and we would have obtained it had it not been that two good horses failed to enter, in addition to the fact that Marvel P. was scratched out. I will give $5,000 for the sheet or telegram sent out by me yesterday with any other horse but Usury. I will also give $5,000 to anyone who can prove that I have not had 13 winners out of 17 since Dec. 1, 1905.

Read this ad carefully through and then ask yourself if it will not be a benefit to take advantage of my one week trial offer, to-wit: To those who are in the least backward about investing $10.00, which has been the price per month, I will allow them to take a week's trial for $3.00 during this and next week to convince them I am right. You no doubt have read my ad and the press notices and must, by this time, feel reasonably certain that I am in on the good ones and in a position to deliver to the betting public the class of information which has been a long felt want. I have established an organization at the various tracks which has been productive of results and I respectfully solicit your patronage to give me an opportunity to demonstrate the efficiency of this organization. The following list which represents my "occasionals" since December 1 can be verified by the Western Union Telegraph Company and I think is a pretty fair showing:
